

Adam Hiebeler Bio

Adam Hiebeler graduated from Northwestern University in 1996 with a degree in Radio/TV/Film, having written and produced numerous films, videos (starring Zach Braff), and concerts (Duran Duran, Tracy Chapman, Urge Overkill). Since then, he has cultivated a wealth of experience in all aspects of filmmaking. As a production assistant in Chicago, Adam began his professional career by working with such notable talent as John Hughes, David Schwimmer, Jason Lee, Bonnie Hunt, John C. Reilly, Julianne Moore, and John Cusak.

With three feature films as a P.A. under his belt, Adam moved to Los Angeles in 1997 to pursue a development opportunity with Sandra Bullock's Fortis Films as a reader/development assistant. Ripe with the experience of reading and covering over 300 books and scripts in 2 ½ years, Adam returned to Chicago in 2000 to embrace his true passion – writing.

From 2000-2003, Adam completed three feature-length screenplays and a host of television spec scripts. He also completed the Comedy Writing Program at Chicago's legendary Second City Training Center where he had the prestigious honor of seeing three of his comedy sketches produced in The Skybox Theater.

Adam currently resides in Philadelphia while his wife attends The Wharton School of Business. He continues to avidly develop and execute concepts for both TV and film while enjoying his work as a pharmaceutical copywriter. His mentors include his wife, his parents, and Richard Chapman, the Emmy/Golden Globe nominated writer of Live From Baghdad. His interests include music, travel, food, and fantasy football.
